

SRE NETWORK 2026 MICROGRANTS

Small grants to help the Jewish nonprofit sector move gender equity work forward.

Microgrants Overview

Creating Jewish workplaces where safety, respect, and equity are lived realities requires ongoing, intentional work. For years, SRE Network has helped lay that foundation—bringing organizations together, shaping shared standards, and investing in one of the only funding streams dedicated to gender equity in Jewish communal life. This work matters. And, it is far from finished.

As we move through a period of calibration and pause larger grantmaking, we feel the weight of this moment. We are committed to exploring new and meaningful ways to resource this work across the field, so progress continues.

We are launching microgrants to move this work forward and ensure resources reach the field where they are needed most. Each grant will be an intentionally modest $2,000, designed to support as many organizations as possible. These funds are intended to spark momentum: whether that means bringing in a facilitator, creating a new resource, or moving forward on a meaningful next step your organization has been hoping to take.

If your organization is part of SRE Network and engaged in advancing safety, respect, and equity, we invite you to apply. Thank you for all you do to advance gender equity and build workplaces grounded in belonging. We are so grateful to be in partnership with you.

Applications will be open from April 14 to May 5, 2026. Please reach out to us at info@srenetwork.org with any questions.

Strengthening Systems of Harm Prevention and Response

- Safe, respectful workplaces are the foundation of a thriving Jewish communal landscape. Organizations must be equipped to prevent harm, respond with care when harm occurs, and build accountability across their communities.

Mobilizing Men as Partners

Rooting Our Core Values in Jewish Wisdom

- Jewish wisdom, texts, and teachings can reinforce the values at the heart of this work and help communities ground their efforts in something deeper.
