

A PASSOVER REFLECTION

for safety, respect, and equity

Together, we can seek dayenu moments that make our Jewish community safer, more respectful, and equitable for all.

If only we strive towards compassion and integrity in how we talk, work, and behave with each other.

Dayenu

If only we act as upstanders and allies, crying out against misconduct, harassment, and bullying.

Dayenu

If only we find the courage to speak up against injustice, discrimination, toxic power structures, sexism, racism, and antisemitism.

Dayenu

If only we remember that we are all created in the image of the Divine.

Dayenu

It would be enough, but only when each of us does our part to pursue true justice, inclusion, and respect for all.

"It is not your responsibility to finish the work, but neither are you free to desist from it."

- Pirkei Avot

A PASSOVER REFLECTION

for safety, respect, and equity

Discussion Questions:

- What is a dayenu moment from your personal or professional life that you are grateful for this Passover?
- Is there a moment when you took action to build a safer, more respectful, or more equitable workplace that you are proud of?
- Is there anything listed in this reflection that you would like to commit or recommit to in this coming year?
